Rrd is proud to announce another hot rider has decided to join the Rrd International Windsurfing Team: John Skye. Skyebob is not just a cool guy, he is a world class wave sailor, known for his radical moves, constantly achieving great results and masses of exposure in the windsurfing media. Skyebob is definitely another hot RRD rider to watch for the future.

New RRD Team Rider John Skye:

"I have heard so many good things about RRD boards and when I tried their new WaveTwin74, it blew me away how nice it was. That was pretty much what sealed the deal for me. All the boards look really cool and RRD is really pushing forwards, so it's great to be part of the team."

Rrd Brand manager Roberto Ricci:

"I'm very happy to welcome Skyebob aboard on Rrd Team. John rips, works hard and is one of the nicest guys you will ever meet, with a huge amount of worldwide respect. Now he is equipped with the best toys he can rip and enjoy his sailing yet further just like Alex is doing by all accounts. The RRD Family keep growing and it's a pleasure to manage a such team of so cool and so high skilled guys!"
